Defendant,)

The United States, by and through its undersigned counsel, respectfully requests that this Court issue an order unsealing the Government's Ex Parte Motion For In Camera Hearing on Potential Conflict of Interest and related hearing by July 28, 2017.

In support of its motion, the Government states:

1. The Government is preparing its Supplemental Opposition to Defendant Lance Kellow's Motion Under 28 U.S.C. § 2255, which will necessarily address the Court's concerns about a potential conflict of interest between the defendant, Lance Kellow, and his counsel, Louis

1 Rojas. The Government's briefing is due on July 31, 2017. The reasons that required the sealing
2 of the Government's motion and subsequent hearing are no longer present.

3 2. As part of its response, the Government must refer to its prior briefing in this case,
4 specifically the Government's Ex Parte Motion For In Camera Hearing on Potential Conflict of 5 Interest that it filed in this case on or about December 21, 2011. As the motion remains sealed,
6 the Government respectfully requests that this Court enter an order unsealing it by July 28, 2017,
7 so that the Government may refer to it in its timely filed response.

8 3. Further, the Government requests the Court unseal the hearing on the motion
9 conducted by Magistrate Judge Leen on December 29, 2011, for the same reasons.

10 Conclusion

11 For the reasons set forth above, the Government requests that the Court issue an order
12 unsealing the prior filing and hearing in this matter: namely, the Government's Ex Parte Motion
13 For In Camera Hearing On Potential Conflict of Interest and December 29, 2011, hearing on the 14 motion before Magistrate Judge Leen, by July 28, 2017.

15 Dated: July 24, 2017

16 Respectfully submitted,

17 STEVEN MYHRE,
